

EMeRGe
Epidemiology & Modelling
Research Group

#EMeRGe2020

Medication without Harm

Communicating and promoting safe medicines in Ireland

Online Conference Monday 28th September

9.10 - 9.15

Dr Philip Crowley

National Director of Quality Improvement, HSE, Ireland
Welcome Address

9.15- 10.00

Prof Bryony Dean Franklin, UCL School of Pharmacy, Imperial College Healthcare NHS Trust

Keynote -Medication without harm: transitions of care

10.00-10.35

Mr Robin Webster, Patient representative

Citizens First and Always: Patients Sometimes

Mr Daniel O' Brien, Patient representative

Living with heart failure and managing multiple medications.

10.35-11.15

Presentations from researchers

Dr. Tamasine Grimes, TCD

Dr Carly Wheeler, Imperial College Healthcare NHS Trust
Household Medication Safety during the COVID-19 Pandemic: A Descriptive Qualitative Study

Dr Karen Cardwell - HRB

Effectiveness of the General Practice Pharmacist (GPP) intervention: a non-randomised pilot study

11.15 - 11.25

10 Minute Coffee Break

11.25-11.45

Ms Sinéad Curran, HPRA

Health Product Regulation -

Optimising safe and effective use of medicines

11.45-12.15

Dr John Brennan, General Practitioner

Understanding medicines with healthcare professionals

Emily Kelly, Superintendent Pharmacist

Understanding Medicines adapting for the challenges of COVID 19 in Community Pharmacy.

12.15-12.45

Presentations from researchers

Dr Kieran Dalton, UCC

Prevention of adverse drug reactions in hospitalised older adults with computer-generated recommendations: key learnings from the SENATOR randomised controlled trial.

Dr Carmel Curran, RCSI

Prevalence and characteristics of adverse drug reactions as a cause of hospital admission in older people

12.45 -13.30pm

Alpana Mair, Scottish Government

Keynote - Polypharmacy, Policy into Practice

13.30-13.40pm

Prof Kathleen Bennett, EMeRGe, RCSI

Close of meeting